

Spoon with Saint James the Greater (inv. 00199)

Author: Anonymous

Place: The Netherlands

Period: 1401-1600

Material: Metal (brass?)

Measurements: 13,8 x 4,7 x 1,5 cm

Origin: Purchased by Jean van Caloen

Description: The spoon has a drop-shaped bowl with a three-sided onset for the handle. This passes into a pilaster ending in a capital on which the image of Saint James the Greater is depicted. The apostle is depicted as a pilgrim with long cloak, pilgrim's hat and staff.

Exhibition:

Bibliography:

