

Saint Helena (inv. 00149)

Author: Anonymous

Place: Brabant

Period: circa 1500

Material: Oak

Measurements: 58 x 21,5 x 18 cm

Origin: Purchased by Roland van Caloen

Description: Saint Helena is depicted full-length. Over her long robe, falling in rich zigzag folds, falls a broad cloak. Her face is contained within a guimpe, while on her head she wears a veil with an imperial crown on it. In her left hand she holds an open book. With her right hand she clasps (a fragment of) a cross. Helena's subdued gaze is focused on the book.

Exhibition:

Bibliography:

