Author: Anonymous

Place: Southern Netherlands

Period: 1501-1600

Material: Oak, polychromy

Measurements: 14 x 5,2 x 4,2 cm

Origin: Purchased by Jean van Caloen

Description: Mary's standing posture and bowed head leaves no doubt, we are dealing with a mourning Mary under the cross. As an elderly woman, she wears a guimpe around her face. Furthermore, she has a red robe and over her head falls a long dark blue veil that also serves as a cloak. Mary holds it in a rich play of folds.
